

EINNEK NEWS

Hello. After today we have just one more round of league fixtures before the season ending EFA Cup final at Hambrox. Unlike it's southern negihbou, the pitch is in perfect condition and ready for the showpiece climax to Season Five on Monday 26th April.

Changes For Season 6

The new morale rules come into effect with immediate effect from the start of the new season. Also, the transfer dealing limit will be removed completely after this week's games. Sammy Bull is ready to release some new payers onto the market next week and Allesandro Ivanoff promises some real prospects from South Africa too.

I am reviewing the international set-up. Considering various options to stop the staleness a few of you have mentioned recently. This may be a small change, it may be a series of small changes, but something will happen. The current log-jam of high skill players walking into international sides is a big issue (it always has in Einnek to be honest after a few seasons!!!). I am testing the changes I have considered and will announce everything next week. Be warned it will be interesting and if it works as I think it should then everyone will potentially benefit in some way or another with any losses easily being out-weighed by gains.

If you have not replied to my email sent on Monday about next season, please do so right away. My mind reading skills are not so hot these days and I would hate to give out your side to a new manager only to find you assumed I knew you wanted to carry on.

Finally, we are looking to have a meet-up during the World Cup on a Saturday afternoon. Possibly somewhere different to the usual haunt as they do not show football. If you are interested let me know and I can include you in on the date discussions. I know we cannot find a date and lace to fit everybody, but I do try!!

Have a good weekend and keep your feet on the ground,
Richard.

SAMMY BULL

Mr Bull has announced he will not be making any further players available until after Easter while he reviews his operation from top to bottom. Lack of interest in his players has astonished the veteran agent and he has promised the next batch of players will be better than they have ever been.

ALLESSANDRO IVANOFF

Player	Nat	P	S	A	F	Age	T/Fee	Club Bought
Zénio Barbosa	BRA	M	3	2	10	18-10	£2.01m	Etchingam Baybears
Vicente Jaco Bès	ARG	A	3	4	10	17-9	£2.25m	Whitechapel Rovers

Mr Ivanoff has not made any players available this week as he has been delayed in Cape Town due to the volcanic ash causing havoc with UK airspace. He is spending the time working with some very promising South African youngsters.

Allessandro's youth players are considered to be the International stars of the future. To purchase a player from Allessandro Ivanoff, you bid in the same way that you would for a player on the transfer market, by submitting a bid on the website.

Mr Henfrey stated "Relegation isn't something that bothers me, in fact the idea of dropping down a division & having a season of rebuilding quite appeals to me & whilst i know the fans won't thank me for this but I feel it could be the best thing that could happen to Hearts. With that said I will be sending a team out this week that I think can beat SVC, if that doesn't happen then so be it but they will have to work hard to earn the win". The only players certain to start this week are Ambroise Vaugrénard, Gregory Dazet, Severin Célestine & Gallies Andréz & all are expected to play some part of Frances Semi Final.

With only two games remaining, Black Widows are clinging onto Division 1 survival by their fingertips. Today's trip to another out of form side, AC Legacy, is a tough one to call on paper - but dooty dawg Spencer Hart has promised to use some of his 20-year Einnek experience to get through the game as unscathed as possible, hopefully with a point or two on the board they didn't have 90 minutes previously. Whatever happens, next season is sure to be a case of 'out of the frying pan and into the fire', with a double-header against Celtic Hearts (:p) in D1 or Yellowknife Industries in D2 on the horizon ... TRANSFERS: The manager keeps faith with his senior squad going into two crunch matches, adding only rookie midfielder Valery Zvyagin, but he has tampered with the youth squad somewhat. In come Murdoch Bressay - who has been loitering with intent in the Spencer Hart name database for two years - Andrius Poskus, Gus Littlefield, Floro Stofengaard and Logan Crush. 'I don't make many plans with my squads in case noone had spotted but we want to invest more in young talent in the weeks and months ahead,' the manager stated, suggesting that a culling of his youth squad could well be on the cards.

The Tangents were the last team to beat the Hearts when they recorded a 4-3 success back in week 10. The Hearts players have been warned against complacency as any slip now could all but end their promotion hopes. ::LAST WEEK:: Wolters was full of praise for his side after they comfortably defeated Corton Wanderers at Gorgie Road. The win was enough to move the Hearts to the top of the second division table.

With one game to go, a number of promotions have already been secured.

Congratulations go to Andrew (Nighthawks), Rich (West Leigh Warriors) and Chris (Tombstone Trojans) on all gaining promotion to the Premier Division. All three are separated by a couple of goals so the final push for the Division One title will be very exciting.

In Divison Two, Rik's Gorgie Hearts and Steve's Farmers Inn United are both promoted and face tough away games in their quest for top honours. Five sides are challenging for the last promotion spot, with Jane's Darwin Disciples narrow favourites.

The bacon sarnies must be really good as Rob Painter's Yellowknife Industries have cruised to the Diviosion Three title. Not bad for a team considered the wrost in Einnek One just two season ago. Rob has shown what can be done. Three sides are in the mix for the two other places in Division Two next season.

Relegation issues are virtually undecided with only one side sure of dropping down a league.

Best of luck to everyone next week.
