

EINNEK NEWS

Welcome to the final league turn of the season. Good luck to everyone and I hope you all get what you hope for in your last games.

Changes For Season 6

The changes for next season were announced this week and have met with some very positive reaction. There is a recap at the end of the turn for everyone to refresh themselves. The Cup Final is to be played on Monday along with the International Finals, the site will then be locked for review for 2 days and we will be ready to start the pre-season on Wednesday 28th April. If you have yet to send in your payment for next season, now is the time to do it please.

Goodbyes

A number of managers are calling it a day this week. Among them are Paul Trow, Daniel Swindells, Paul Davie and Adrian Wenborn, who all seem to have been around for years. Mr Trow will be especially missed as the chances of us ever getting the beers he owes us have now dropped even more! Seriously, good luck to you all in whatever you do and if you ever wish to return to the fold then just let me know.

Have a great weekend,
Richard.

SAMMY BULL & ALLESSANDRO IVANOFF

Look out for some new players from both Mr Bull and Mr Ivanoff in the EFA Cup Final turn on Monday! Both chief scouts see their new charges as some of the best ever prospects they have discovered and with the right side they could well be future superstars of Einnek Football.

Subs: Clovis Domer 6, Josh McCarthy 6, Lukas Schaefer 6, Andre Fox -. CH: HAPPY ST GEORGES DAY!!!!!! Another season that promised so much yet has failed to deliver again. Hearts go into the final week of the season which just a relegation scrap to play for. Only the top 3 teams are mathematically safe from the drop, this includes this weeks visitors Coruscant Star. With deals being vetoed this week following the international changes, Hearts will string the French & USA quartet of Dazet, Célestine, Coffman & Offondo across midfield. In defence only Ambroise Vaugrénard is certain to start & up front captain Gallies Andréz as they both have the international final to prepare for. Henk Janssen & Cyrus Clay could keep their places at the expense of Heinrich Oberhauser & Aztec Escondido following impressive showings last week. Whilst in goal its anyone's guess as to who will start! Hearts know only a win will guarantee survival, but a high scoring draw could be enough given Hearts better goal difference. A high scoring draw was something of a distant dream after 17 weeks of the season as they had failed to score more than 2 goals in a league game. Since then they have scored 3 in each of the last 4 games but have lost the last 3 4-3!! Better things are in store for the youth team who boast the only 100% record going into the final round of games at home to North Bank Guns. Promotion for the first time is already secured but Hearts will be looking to maintain their 100% record to secure top spot. Manager Stu Henfrey has agreed a 1 season extension to carry on at the helm for next season no matter what division Hearts find themselves in.

Season 4 was the season Marky Mark should of made legend but despite a last home win over perennial opponents the mentals 1-0, Herdo somehow mustered a 3-1 away win .... to this day the only +2 away win ever registered .... a phenomenon ? .... no just a fact .... to cap it all ... the Croasmeister bagged the Cup too that season so thinking the Prem on points and Cup was enough to win the Manager of the season award alone but no that was disregarded as the prem winners pinched that much coveted award too .... surely as seasons go, MM had a chance but with 4 out of the 5 Manager of the season winners being Div1 winners maybe relegation is the only answer ? ! .... but not a thought the BSO Bossman wants to contemplate .... Good luck to all as usual from the BSO Bossman .... but eat shit with the usual i will be glad of going down as i will have a chance of re-grouping yadda yadda .... thats the talk of a fool .... with no ambition ..., my middle name is Erick "King Like" ... to tough it out in Div One will be seen as an NGE disgrace in my book and i will not be a willing part of it .... its a fun game but anything out the prem not against Herdo, Henf, Young, Gynn, Clincho, McCash will be pussy play in my book .... Season 6 will be interesting ~MANAGER QUOTE~ Speaking about recent calls for a supplementary payment for dropping out the Premier, Gaffa Croasy was prompted to say "I don't need a parachute Baby, if I've got you Baby, if I've got you I don't need a parachute You're gonna catch me You're gonna catch if I fall Down, down, down I won't fall out of the prem I won't fall out of the prem " in an amazingly tuneful ditty ! .... ~AND FINALLY~ see you in the Premier Season 6 !!!

Subs: Halburt Slipper 7, Tomás Karadagián 6, Mercer Chelley 7, Víctor Manuel Forero -. BW: Dear oh dear ... we need to go back to week 13 to unearth the last Widows league victory. A dismal spell, which saw Spencer Hart's team lose their third league game on the bounce last week, was topped off by a second successive 4-3 away trouncing. The manager felt this was undeserving given that 3/5 of the defence earned rave '9 star' reviews for their performances, none more so than Tam McEwan, who the manager was tempted to drop today to preserve if not his position as the top performing defender in the league to his placing in the Team of the Year ... but that would only be another feather in the silly cap the manager is oft seen wearing on final day. Surely if the Widows are to drop a rung today into the second division the manager will need to use everything at his disposal in what has unexpectedly become a mammoth fixture against Elland Mythicals. The two sides were both relegated from the Prem last season, but while Justin Risedale's lot have faired well, Hart's have sunk progressively into the doldrums of division one thanks to the madcap 'buying for the future' antics of Mr Hart, who has sold off numerous skill points at the expense of current success and – quite possibly – division one safety ... TEAM NEWS: It's as good as it can be today for the Widows: Kiah, McEwan, Autauga and Leonandro defend Hyman in goal while surely Schiaparelli, Sju, Dale and the evergreen Freemunda have a goal in them ... the main chink in the Widows' armour continues to be the second midfield slot, with a deal for a Cruso midfielder falling through while the EFA's new rules were digested by the masses. TRANSFERS: Bids for Widows' desirable defenders have been wafting in like volcanic ash all week with the manager choosing to hold fire on any major transfers until the close season while he sees 'what's what' ... rumours are rife that Tam McEwan is getting itchy feet, and a likely place in Team of the Year will put a few extra noughts on the towering Scotsman's head ... CLUB NEWS: Icarus Wing has been informed that his training contract will not be renewed after today's match. Regarded by the manager as the best player he has ever introduced to the game, the Canadian hasn't passed on his defensive prowess to the current team who have on occasion performed like the Anthill Mob. Wing will be replaced by another Hart defensive legend - Minerva Cray, the former Tribeca Clouds captain. In a further teasing revelation, the manager announced that other major changes are afoot at the club ...

SEASON SIX GAME CHANGES

As mentioned in the turn last there are a number of changes which will be introduced at the end of the season. All the changes are linked together and together they will address many concerns managers have contacted me about during the last few months. The changes are designed to prevent issues which have always occurred throughout the history of the game and to re-invigorate this for those of you who find certain things very stale.

The changes are as follows:

1. Players no longer have to play for their clubs in order to be eligible for international selection. As long as any suspension or injury issues are cleared after the club fixtures are played then they will be able to play at international level.
2. All high skill players (6 or above) will now receive a maximum of 15 WACS when they change skill level. Skill 5 players will continue to receive 25 WACS. The Player of the Week, 'A' International Man of the Matches and Team of the Year players will be awarded 25 WACS. 'B' International Man of the Matches will get 15 WACS.
3. Players will be awarded a skill increase every 10 International Points. The retiral limit will stay at 50IPs where a player will receive 2 skill points. All skill increases due to caps will be at 15 WACS maximum.

Also, the 2 changes announced right at the start of the season will take effect. Morale meaning more and IR being related to actually playing rather than just performances.

These changes are being introduced for various reasons;

- To make international selection more competitive. Right now we have the same hard core of players who get selected game in game out. These players are finding it very easy to retain skill points and in fact they will just end up as retired internationals on skill 8 or more with no effort and regardless of how well they actually play long term.
- To develop some stars in the game which we are currently missing. The 25 WACS players will now stand out. Agent players and successful youth players will also have the chance to shine as they are now more playable.
- To promote dealing. More players will be worth buying now as internationals are more attractive.
