Morale Changes

The proposed morale changes relating to team changes have caused a good healthy discussion over on the new blog site. With this in mind I am deferring the changes for the moment.

Einnek Blog / Rule Book

The revised Einnek Blog has been running for a week now and is proving popular. I have posted a couple of tips which seem to have been well received. The game suggestions/questions have generated a nice debate although I would ask that you all use your names when posting and not some coded id. This way we all know who is getting involved and semi-anonymous posts are most likely to get cleared out by me as they add nothing to the debate.

The rules are slowly coming together on the site. I hope to have much of the Youth League section completed by Tuesday – weather permitting.

Youth League News

The youth league starts this week, so please make sure you have enough players to put out a side!

Have a good weekend,
Richard.

EE: ~LAST WEEK~ As predicted a 1-1 draw with Druids. Burton was satisfied with the result and its an extra point on the board. In terms of the actual game itself it was a game with few chances and was by all accounts a fair result. ~TRANSFERS~ Burton moved in the transfer market this week to strengthen his defence with the signing of Flameni, he will go straight into the starting line up with the job of man marking Super Mario. Also this week in came Filatov and Tamarama and out go Oborskia, Heartland, Nedderwind Hrasovac and Duggan ~THIS WEEK~ Sees the visit of Kenkai Veleno. Burton is expecting a home win but knows that pose a significant threat up front and a high scoring affair is predicted. TA: With Cassian Deakyn injured after Southern Cross Prophets' Bobby Reece's unbooked reckless tackle left him needing 12 stitches in his shin, he misses out on the visit of Coruscant Star. He is replaced by able Argentine star Vippenen. Dave Newell is hoping for a change of luck in the Premier as he is still looking for his first win of the season.
CS: Last week saw Coruscant Star host rivals SVC in a match manager Alan Murphy felt was winnable. "If we are to achieve anything this season we have to win home games against any teams with less skill, through points, injuries or suspensions. So a 3-3 draw was disappointing. I'm pleased we scored 3 goals but to concede 3 goals at home with +9 skill points in goalkeeper and defence is complete farce. We have 2 away games now which realistically will be tough to win. Maybe we can get a couple of draws." This week Star travel to Tormenta Advertencia whose reputation as bully boys has all but disappeared. Something Murphy is pleased about. "I used to hate playing teams like Tormenta, I really did. But the manager there has changed things and is reaping the benefits with promotion to the premier league." On this weeks edition of "Star-Struck" the Bravo 2 fly on the wall documentary host Daniel Vance interviewed a few players and staff on an eventful period in the clubs history. "Taking a ride through the Celestial Dome trophy room doesn't take all day but it's one journey you wont want to lose your ticket for. Its a modern, bright space with loads of natural light flooding in through the full length windows along one side of the room. On the opposite wall are photographs of players and teams past and present. Here we can see a photo of a young Paulo Behr scoring the winner for the Italy B team in Buenos Aires, the pitch covered in paper and streamers as he leaves club team mate Gaston Cuevas in his wake during his man of the match performance. Further along the wall we find manager Alan Murphy and Star captain and legend Snuffy Walden. You look as though you have aged a bit since then Alan and it was only 2 seasons ago. "I know." replies Murphy, "But its been a tough couple of seasons since then." Its the team with the EFA cup after the final against Kenkai Veleno. At the back standing are Quantizao, Venichevic, Blade, Behr, Callander and Cools. Kneeling in the foreground surrounding the famous trophy are Walden, Waara, Sinis, Demenkovets and Adams. "We didnt really think we could win as we just missed out on promotion and almost got relegated. It was bizarre. A few days earlier we were playing Dynamo Dobson away on the final day of the season. A goos win meant we would go up but a heavy loss meant we could go down. It was strange day. In the end we lost 4-3 and finished 9th. If the score had been reversed we'd have gone up." Host Vance asked Walden "What are your memories from that final Snuffster?" "Well we had a great team at that time. Most of the team were about to explode in skill the following season but for now it was just potential. The gaffer played 5 in midfield, told me to sit deep and make sure we used the 2 man advantage. We knew they were a top team with one of the best strikers I've ever played against in Mario Maguire. I remember it was a big crowd, 120,000 I think so it was quite intimidating. But exciting as well. My family came to watch including my 2 older brothers Gruffy and Tuffy and my younger sister Fluffy and effeminate brother Puffy. Anyway we scored early doors but were 2-1 down at half time. Blade made it 2-2. I loved playing alongside him, he was immense. A shame we couldn't keep hold of him. He tells me all the time on international breaks that he wants to come back. Maybe you can have a word with the Druids manager gaffer." Murphy laughs, "I don't think he's for sale somehow." Walden continues, "So with 20 minutes or so left it was still 2-2 and our back 3 had contained Maguire so well but he sneaked away to put them 3-2 up. Waara equalized pretty quickly though and it went to extra time." "What did you do to the boys Alan?" asked Vance. "I just told them it's a new game, you have proved you are a match for them, lets go out and win the 30 minute game, get re energised. Imagine walking up those steps and lifting the trophy. Give it 110%, make that pitch your own, make it the best performance tonight by a mile and you'll do fine. So what happened next was pretty unbelievable Blade only went and scored the winner 11 minutes into injury time at the end of the 120. And the trophy was ours. Happy days!" Part 2 next week early season transfer controversy.

Willem Knijnenburg takes over the South African's place in a change that will please some supporters. One further change sees Lumumba Vawda return to the team in place of Taiki Ono. LAST WEEK: Con Lafferty found his scoring boots as his two goals were enough to secure victory over Darwin Disciples. Manager Wolters was even seen to smile at full time. TRANSFER NEWS: Speaking in last week's post-match interview, Wolters announced that he has made a list of five players he aims to sign in the coming weeks. The names remain a secret, but the boss did let slip that at least one of them has previously played for the Hearts.
