

EINNEK NEWS

Hello and welcome to the first cup turn of the season. Another busy week has seen some progress on a new historical feature I hope to release before the next turn. No clues other than to say all your old favourite players will feature!!

Player Agents Update

Despite some lengthy discussions both Sammy Bull and Alessandro Ivanoff have kept their promise to "take a break from the game". Despite the continued success of many of their charges throughout the game, the overall lack of interest in their players has left both dumbfounded. Hopefully the break will not be too long and some of those players we have heard about in the Fanzine will make their bows in the game soon.

Have a great weekend,
Richard.

Fritz Gürder and Soloza Prettyleg make rare starts in defence and midfield, otherwise it's an unchanged side to the one that slumped to yet another defeat last week. :TRANSFER NEWS: Youngster Paixio has move on to Black Star Olympic with young Dutch striker Rydell Dreissen joining the Hearts on a one year contract. Young Japanese attacker Shinji Yakuza has signed up with the men in maroon after the Hearts scouts were given a tip off that the youngster was being watched by Sammy Bull. The early signs are pretty good as Yakuza blew away some of his more experienced team mates in his first training session at the club.

ME: A cup fixture always sends a shiver down Spencer Hart's spine, as he's only used to one per season and normally screws it up. Today Eclipse travel to Tiddlecombe Tangents, by their own admission another underperforming cup team over the years. TEAM NEWS: After last week's satisfying away victory the manager is loathe to fiddle with the formation, so sticks with 4-3-3 to try to prevent the Eclipse midfield being too overrun. The signings of Riquelle Vrooman and Alonso Raula will make a huge difference at the back but don't do a great deal for a weak midfield which only has Abjay Boatang offering any clout. Up front Schiaparelli, Freemunda and Sju lead the line, with Saintbernard expected to return to the fold next week. TRANSFER NEWS: Another week of offers for Kiah, who very nearly joined two clubs in the week only for sentiment to give them both late changes of heart. As Sky Sports 'Paper Talk' might say ... 'Could this be the Aussie's last Eclipse outing?'

EE: ~LAST WEEK~ An excellent win against the Champs delighted manager Burty however the injury to Colas soured the result somewhat! ~TRANSFERS~ A youth team clearout was over seen and the transfer listed Under the radar featured Karnovich was snared by Burton. Also goal machine Ratan Tinder was also purchased to beef up an already impressive forward line with Offondo going in the opposite direction. ~THIS WEEK~ A cup draw against the Pink Brigade. Burton expects a comfortable win but with Colas out and the unpredictability of the cup results anything can happen! ~INTERNATIONALS~ Rhain has a chance of getting his 30th cap today!

EW: ~LAST WEEK~ 3-1 defeat to Tiddly Tangents. Burton continued his run of conceding at least 3 goals every game but "consistency is the key" ~TRANSFERS~ Nothing this week as after a mad start to the season all has settled down somewhat now ~THIS WEEK~ A friendly against Littleton Rovers. Burton will play a few key players but will also give others a run out. ~INTERNATIONALS~ Fass, Joli and Bogota have chances of playing today. ~RETIRALS~ Frangman hung up his boots today, his performances over the last few weeks have been somewhat lacking and decided to call it a day. "it's a day" he said :)

FC: Sensational news this week as veteran striker Jesus Baldomero has retired after serving a suspension and going five games without a goal. Cosmos manager Joseph Burrridge has publicly criticised defender Ardaz Nelz after last week saw the Brazilian receive his fifth yellow card of the season. Burrridge said: 'Making a mistake is one thing, doing precisely what your manager told you not to do is another. Nelz must learn a lesson from this, or I am going to lose my patience with him.'
