

EINNEK NEWS

Hello and welcome to the second Cup turn of the season.

Statistics Update

I have continued to fine tune the processes to collate statistical information and hope to be able to launch the facility for you to review every player who has ever played in the version of the game very soon. Also, some improvements to the database are being tested which should eliminate some of the minor issues that creep in on occasions and show player averages incorrectly.

Website Detectives

Again thanks to those who emailed me this week with all the little issues you found. I will be reviewing those I have not looked at over the weekend and if you are due some youth points you will get them then. Hopefully, we are close to resolving all the little niggles on the website, but the offer of youth points for your assistance will continue for a while yet.

Have a good weekend,
Richard.

EM: Youth team protégé, Dallas Goodblood makes his anticipated First Team Debut today, in a up game, that the Mythicals die hards hope they lose so that League safety can become a sole priority. With more and more youth team starlets now making the grades at Youth level, is there more youngsters that we can look forward to seeing in the future. Remember though, you don't win anything with boys, but if they are good enough for the first team, they are certainly old enough.

CH: Cup week & Hearts travel to the Sanctum to face Bathys AC Legacy. With Hearts discovering their form away from home this season with 3 wins & a draw from 5 away league games & a heavy skill point advantage the odds looked stacked in Hearts favour, especially with AC's star midfielder Machlyneth out injured but manager Stu Henfrey is taking nothing for granted. "They have a strong team & have already shown by knocking West Leigh out that they can cause problems but if we play the way we have been then I'm confident of progressing". Hearts come into the match with morale at an all time high having beaten title rivals ELA to move 4 points clear at the top of the table. Henfers names an unchanged side for the first time this season although Escondido plays with a heavily strapped thigh protecting a cut that required 10 stitches acquired following a thigh high challenge from ELA's Pichi Alvez. Alvez had already been booked but referee Cyril Crea amazingly awarded a free-kick to ELA for the challenge, much to the amazement of everyone in the ground. ELA manager LB saved Alvez from further any further punishment by substituting him immediately whilst Escondido received lengthy treatment before being taken off himself.

Due to an overload of strikers, the Hearts manager has had to change his team accordingly. New signings Meier and Rojo join Wasimara, Ship and Lafferty in an ambitious five man attack. Rocha is preferred to Prettyleg in midfield. LAST WEEK: Two goals from Con Lafferty earned the Hearts a much deserved point against the Mythicals and but for a last minute goal line clearance by the visitors' Shashinho, the Hearts would have walked off with maximum points and Lafferty the match ball. TRANSFER NEWS: Japanese striker Tokimochi Kujimata has left the club in a deal that sees three talented forwards join the club. Marcelo Meier, Romulo Rojo and Fidel Cesar Marquez all join from Nighthawks in a deal that Wolters hopes will turn their mediocre start to the season around. The club also picked up the signing on young South African Russ McHewer from Sudan Nomads for a fee of £1m. YOUTH LEAGUE: After careful consideration the club have offered senior contracts to three youngsters. Dutchman Matthijs Van Oldenbarnevelt, Heron midfielder Ralf Hansen and Russian striker Alexander Gabritschevsky have all been given the chance to sparkle on the main stage. Meanwhile Swedish defender Haviland Kihlstedt picked up all the plaudits after last week's man of the match performance, awarded his display in the Hearts' youngsters 4-1 hammering of West Leigh Warriors.

Johnaathan Ingriffyds 11 minute from time winner stole the 3 points and the sixth straight home win ~TRANSFERS~ riding high at the top of the league is keeping the fans quiet about the lack of senior transfer activity as chairman PG Monkcheek ploughs more money into stadium renovations .... the training of jap striker Taiyo was all that was doing the senior players this week in stark contrast with the shenanigans going on with the youth camp ~THIS WEEK~ Its back to the cup as we enter Round 2 ... ding ding ... Wigg's Wanderers are the visitors to the new 5 sided Hole-'th'-wall Olympians Colloseum as the 'New Prem' takes on Div2's finest .... a collosul 10 high skill point advantage is added to Gaffa Croasys home advantage ... ~PREVIOUS MEETINGS~ Seemingly no previous match ups with Corton or season one version Canning Town Angels .... ~STAT BURST~ HSP BSO +17 v AC +7, AGG 34 v 34, MOR 30 v 13, FIT 110 v 102 ... ~INTERNATIONALLY~ Last turn Brazilian one name legend Iasa squared up against defensive partner, Croat "top 50 all time players" Koratik as Brazil won 3-2 with both players gaining creditable 8 ratings, whilst for the Swede B's Klemens Thorstein also rated as 8 ... This week Tom Hookton and Jesse Dash pull out all the stops for the Aussie A's with Phil Worth in with a shout from the bench .... Uzzirai Taiyo could partner Jap legend Kazy Kubs in the opposing team meaning a potential 5 man representation from Olympic in one A game !!! .... IMOM here we come !! .... ~WHERE ARE THEY NOW~ Keeps Salome Ariaah, Heron Kenzo Wakasugi both have previous between the sticks for Olympic .... Captain Haarm Van Mannen was the season three captain of Black Star and his country the duth Netherlands of Holland ! .... Purisco Mercurilaca is a product of the Kram League youth academy but was sold to No More Mr before getting a game .... Caid Fintyre also wore the famous Black and Red halves but never got a run of games .... on the flip side Magnus Ottoson started his career at Canning Tonw and played 6 games .... ~YOUTH LEAGUE~ Season 5, Division 5, Match Day 3, Position 7th(above the Mentals!) ~YOUTH LAST WEEK~ Walmington took the spoils 2-1, but goal scorer San Andreas' MoM award meant he was out the door quick smart ! ... ~YOUTH TRANSFERS~ capped Sigbjorn, Mirage and Moruea came in for the flogged San Andreas .... a cheeky offer to the Captain resulted in centre half Hibbsy jumping overboard as the veteran youth set sail on the good ship B star ... ah har jim lad ! .... Ogulin also decided on a career on the high seas of Lancashire as Mr Claps chucked him out of Northallerton without so much of a goodbye or see ya !! .... a dip into the Kram League was promised and in came latino luvly Milano LaGuearta shimmying into the Black Star youth No9 shirt in his first game ... ~YOUTH THIS WEEK~ 2nd in the table the Myths are the visitors to the much improved Olympians but the Tyke outfit should still hold all the aces in this encounter ~YOUTH TEAM SELECTION~ Multiple changes as 4-4321-41-4332 gives way to a much improved 4-4443-44-4443, an 11 skill point hike no less ! .... ~MANAGER QUOTE~ with the stadium, youth academy tax and indeed the youth team much improved over the last few weeks Gaffa Croasy Mark E Mark has promised to concentrate on the senior 11 and guarantee a marquee signing in the upcoming weeks .... "Its time to face the music" was the mantra from the perma tanned playboy family man ... ~AND FINALLY~ as eluded to before the new pentagonal Hole-'th'-wall stadium has again had work this week with a new 4,000 seater 'swing' erected over the two main side stands .... the carriage will traverse the whole of the pitch on strong cables and sway up and down during the action, the revolutionary idea was the brainchild of manager Gaffa Croasy after taking his son to the playground, a bar is in the centre of the upside down dome with the fans inside getting a piss break at half time
