

EINNEK NEWS

Welcome to the opening turn of the new season. Apologies for the extended pre-season, but I hope he wait was worth it.

This week we welcome new manager Iain Mclver to the game and two old names have returned in Graham Bates and Jamie Fitzjohn. Please give them due consideration when discussing deals or anything else game related. Due to the credit crunch it has been hard to get new managers to fill all the sides that became free. This has meant extending the amount of managers who have second sides in the game. Although this is not a perfect arrangement, I feel it much better to have all the sides managed than try to juggle them myself while recruiting new blood. Rest assured I will monitor these sides closely and if there is any side of using one side for the benefit of another I will immediately sack those concerned – be warned!

There was one error in the site code which only came to light today. The new ticket prices were capped at £25 due to a mistake on my part. I will fix the issue over the weekend so it is correct going forward but all home sides were handicapped by the cap today. To compensate every home side has been given a bonus cash boost from the EFA.

Have a good weekend and enjoy the two cup finals,

Richard.

SR: Despite the new manager, and a massive squad upheaval as he makes his mark on the club, the big news story was (and still is) the signing of highly rated Sammy Bull prodigy Ishmael Babinga. From stories of how much impressed legendary manager and talent spotter Kenzie J Young in a practice game, to the strange scenario where somehow two clubs both held his registration at the same time (due to the failings of a new-fangled computer system), the kid must have felt like he was in a whirlwind at times. Once it had been confirmed that Spitfire Road had actually signed the near 7.25m youngster, talk promptly swapped to whether he would debut this week. Late Friday evening head trainer Saul Harrison made this announcement "We have decided it is best, given the hectic week and media spotlight the poor lad has been through, that if Ishmael is on the bench for this game. The last thing he will need is the pressure of a full game against a team such as Celtic Hearts, especially with their midfield quartet and our experienced midfielder Morikama suspended. He has impressed massively in training and hopefully we will be able to give him a run out at some stage of the game". CH: Having survived relegation on goal difference Stu Henfrey has spent the pre-season rebuilding Hearts in the hope they can emulate Champions Warmington Bukigura who finished just above the relegation zone in season 4 & went on to win the title last season. Hearts new squad faces a trip to Premier newcomer Dave J & the renamed Spitfire Road. SH has managed to build a formidable team & despite morale not being at its highest, he hasn't been more confident before an away game. Hearts go into the match with a 12 sk point advantage but know they will have to be at their very best if they are to come away with a victory & if they do it could very well shape the way their season goes. New signings Albion Tomkins & Rico Costadinas have already been strongly linked with a move to another Premier side but nothing as yet has been confirmed or denied. Hearts have named French international Gregory Dazet as their new captain for the season & with Banastre Tarleton stepping down from his club captaincy it is expected he could be in the frame for the French international captaincy.

EE: ~PRE SEASON~ A relatively quiet pre season at Elementals with just a few tweaks for the new season. Burton was a little disappointed in the end of last season and felt he should be higher up the table. However he does not think there is much wrong at Elementals and a few minor adjustments here and there should have a positive response. ~TRANSFERS~ In came recently mentioned Christopher Nations after an excellent season last season along with Sammy bull signings Depreter and Bulani. Cearball and Stofengard also join the youth ranks. Korda, De Groot, Kluthi and Fox left the club for pastures new. A late signing or 2 also just in Beda Schokke and Bastien Septamarias left the club in the early hours with Ocavacio, Nakopo and Nicomedes coming in and a straight swap for Nedderwind saw Hrasovac leave for the current champions. ~INTERNATIONALS~ Nothing this week ~YOUTH LEAGUE~ No changes this week, the youth players advised to battle bravely against all odds with a points target of 1 :-D ~AND FINALLY~ Business as usual

GH: ~THIS WEEK~ The Hearts kick off season six with a tricky visit to Stade Huelga De Relámpag to take on newly relegated Tormenta Advertencia. Both teams will be looking to prove themselves in Division One and manager Wolters expects a tight game. :~TEAM NEWS~: No real surprises in the Hearts line up apart from Spanish midfielder Gustavo Vildósola getting the nod ahead of Leonardo Rocha. Lafferty starts on the bench to accommodate in form Simon Westall in a four man attack. :~TRANSFER NEWS~: Defender Ephraim Prebendal and midfielder Pavao Miho Bojan have both left Gorgie Road to join local rivals Chesser Hearts. The Hearts youth team, however, has been bolstered by the signing of Swede Haviland Kihlstedt and Englishman Raif Sadler. Both are expected to play a key part in the club's attempt to climb out of the bottom division for the first time ever. :~OTHER NEWS~: Alessandro Cesar Silva has defied critics and signed an extension to his current contract to keep him at Gorgie Road until the end of the season. Silva will also remain Hearts captain. Wolters said, "This is fantastic news, Alessandro has been a rock in the Hearts' defence for the past five seasons so it's great to keep such a talented player on board".

EW: ~PRE SEASON~ After being relegated from Division 1 the board decided to take action and removed Daniel Swindells from his position with immediate effect. Andy Burton took over the helm and immediately started to put his stamp on the team. ~TRANSFERS~ In came Gonsalvas, Montego, Pinto De Moreira, Le Batte, Callender, Joli, Cranke, Fass, Barsom, Dingane, Blatherwycke, Rainbow and out go Kalashnidze, Eelmaa, Ingryffid, Canas, Goddard, Botero, Mo. Burton has only been in charge 2 weeks but sees the changes as very positive with plenty of dealing ahead Burton hopes to rebuild this season and then hopefully challenge next season. ~THIS WEEK~ Acid test! The fixtures computer was obviously in a comedian like mood when it reeled off Yellowknife on week 1. All Burton can ask for is that he new and old players put a shift in and try and stay in the game as long as possible. Anything from this game will be points gained! ~INTERNATIONALS~ None in week 1 ~YOUTH LEAGUE~ A massive over haul took place of the youth team with 10 new faces appearing in the squad. Also youth legend Ximenes makes the step up to the 1st team this week. Burton has high hopes for him and a special mention in Kennis youth 1st 11 did no harm to his chances at all! ~AND FINALLY~ With a longer than normal pre season Burton has been chomping at the bit and is glad its business as usual now :-D

"The simple reason isn't a priority shift, but a squad I was already very happy with" was the reasoning given by the gaffer. However the one new player is Khaelen Isherwood, a Australian youth defender who had been on the radar of OPA for a while now. Some have suggested the price at 3m was a little high, but he did have a very good season last year for the club previously known as Black Widows.
