

EINNEK NEWS

Hello and welcome to the week two turn. The season really kicks off today with the start of the Internationals. Can France retain their title?

Morale

Due to a mistake by me when updating the database, I applied the incorrect morale changes. Thanks to those of you who spotted this and emailed me. It really does help when these little issues are picked up and I get a heads up before something runs and gets very difficult to rectify. Don't forget morale is going to play a much bigger part in the game from now on and you all need to look at your and your opponent's morale when selecting your team each week.

Meet-Up

The next meet-up is going to be in London on June 26th. We are still to confirm a venue as our usual place does not have TV and with the World Cup on we will look to find another place over the next couple of weeks. We will be looking to meet around 2pm, if you are interested in coming along please let me know as we may well need to book a table as pubs will be busy,

Have a good weekend,
Richard

WLW: ~LAST WEEK~ A good start with a draw against last season's runner's up with top striker Jacob Wolfstone continuing his great form into the prem ~TRANSFERS~ Only one major deal done this week with Spanish hit man Maricopa Comanchero joining to hopefully form deadly partnership upfront with Wolfstone and Demetrio ~THIS WEEK~ Last season's champions Warrington visit Sharps Road with Warriors hoping to record a famous first victory in the Premier Division ~INTERNATIONALS~ Leo Alonso playing for Colombia is only international player this week YOUTH LEAGUE~ GREAT NEWS ON YOUTH TEAM!! Warriors finally got first draw last turn and are now going for first victory this turn!!! WB: This week sees Dalindybo Jammie retire. It is rumoured that having missed so many games recently through suspension and injury Jammie realised that he would rather spend more time with his family than travelling backwards and forwards to "such dumps as Sunset Town Road", but also that he felt it had done irreparable damage to his international career.

EE: ~LAST WEEK~ A game Burton thought he could win ended in a slightly disappointing draw however things could of been worse till Nazareen rescued the game with an 87th minute strike! ~TRANSFERS~ Burton has had a very busy week indeeeeee. In came top giveman Hipkiss, Burton has been after this player for a few weeks and is delighted to capture this signing; also through the revolving doors was Vidal, Love, Rwhbin, Kluthi, Roosterburg, Manduray, Pauchard, McLeod and Hernandez (Oh well morale deduction for me this week lol) and out went Kilgareth, Czechova, Nicomedes, Roca, Burke-Jones, Meier and Bombak. ~THIS WEEK~ Another home game sees the arrival of Winchmore. Burton know he needs a win from this game. One of the title favourites will b no push over but with the keeper and defensive positions strengthened Burton is confident he can put down a marker and win this one! ~INTERNATIONALS~ With the sale of Croatian first choiuce keeper there will be no international caps this week! YOUTH LEAGUE~ The target of 1 point is looking unlikely with a defeat against the worst other team in the division! WR: Winchmore have denied mocking Celtic Hearts over the misannouncment of securing the French International Captaincy last week, though they have said that perhaps Stu Henfrey arriving on the pitch last week riding a bike in a beret, comedy moustache with a string of onions round his neck was perhaps a bit premature ...
