

EINNEK NEWS

Hello and welcome to the final league turn of this season. I hope you have all enjoyed the season and I look forward to seeing you all back next time.

Season Seven

A small number of people have yet to reply to my email regarding next season. Please do so right away or I may have to assume you no longer wish to play the game.

Have a good weekend,

Richard.

The 19 year old Russian Cruso starlet was signed for 5.6m from Redroc Rovers and the club have high hopes for him after already linking well with Robken and Hooqadew in practice. This week's game is all-important as a victory will secure another season in the Premier Division. Having beaten Nighthawks 4-3 at their ground we are looking forward to doing the double over them.

EE: ~LAST WEEK~ First away win of the season and what a time to get it, Burton fancied his chances but a 4-3 score line still came as a surprise as it pulled ELA clear of relegation and up to the dizzy heights of 4th in the table! Burton feels he can relax a bit going into the last game with a 3 point cushion in hand! ~TRANSFERS~ Burton sold Lomas back to Winchmore this week and in deal that saw Pink, Laroque and Sanders join the fold. ~THIS WEEK~ Home to Tombstone Trojans. Burton hopes to make this 3 wins in a row to secure the 4th spot in the league. Burton is outgunning Pagey 20 HSP to 17 HSP so this is very possible indeed off the back of some excellent form recently. ~INTERNATIONALS~ McEwan and Adams will play for Scotland this week. ~YOUTH LEAGUE~ A winning start to the season for ELA, this week a grudge match against Bad Gag Croasy. Its backs to the walls as Homo Lamp Lighter and co come to the Thunderdome. Burton aims to bring the 'premium' youths back down to earth following some over hype in the press the last few weeks! Reports are widespread leading up to this game that the BSO Bossman is very nervous about this fixture. Some funny smells have been leaking from the Hole in the Wall Stada with one passer by commenting. Woah Croasie, woah Croasie he definitely doesn't smell of roses!!! ~AND FINALLY~ Where did Judy Atkinson go?

Subs: Iasa 6, Jesse Dash 6, Jose Escavaze 6, Stepan Demidov -. KB: The Bambams are wearing a special all pink strip for today's game and 20% of the gate is going straight to MacMillan. There is talk of next season's strip being all pink as well, although the decision has yet to be made. Today's game is meaningless as far as the table is concerned, with Moisty already having lifted the title and Juicy safe from the former Premier Champions facing the embarrassment of a second relegation in a row, but the non-derby derby has always been the game The Bambam fans relish, so it's sure to be a hot atmosphere at the Copperhead this week. Whatever the result, (and I fully expect a 2-2 draw), Juicy and Moisty may shout and scream at each other during the game, but all will be forgotten after the game as they put their best frocks on and head for Pokey Pams Discaroo, where they have booked the whole venue for a private party this evening. All 600 tickets have been sold and the guests read like a who's who of Einnek Football, with many legends making an appearance, as well as current managers and players. It's a drag night, so I personally can't wait to see Bax Tulloch-Pandy in a sequined number! BSO: BSO: ~LAST WEEK~ Tormetia tormented the Olympic Ultra's with a sound defensive display as Olympic went for the two points to secure the Div One Title crown, an equaliser with 10 mins left meant all eyes Ms Claps Disciples .... but needless to worry .... Darwin where 3 down after 9 minutes to the Bams and never really recovered especially after KinKai striker Vojko Ka completed his 4 goal haul ... and so it was .... Subs: Con Lafferty 6, Blayze Alexan 7, Andreas Jaramillo 7, Niildo -. GH: TEAM NEWS: Wolters makes a solitary change to the side that beat Sirocco Whitecaps last week. Ulric Holtzhausen comes in for the disappointing Taiki Ono. THIS WEEK: The Hearts travel to the Sanctum to take on AC Legacy in a game the media have billed as being the biggest in the club's short history. A win would see the Hearts take their place in next season's Premier Division. Anything less would leave the Hearts relying on the results of others, which is something the Hearts' boss is hoping to avoid. LAST WEEK: A Marcelo Meier volley 16 minutes from time earned the Hearts a well-deserved 2-1 victory over the Whitecaps at Gorgie Road. INTERNATIONAL NEWS: Saul Bullock-Sloan is hoping to make his second appearance for Scotland this week in the World Cup Semi Final against the United States. Big Saul made an impressive Scotland debut two weeks ago when he scored two goals, including the winner, to see off arch rivals England in the Quarter Final. YOUTH LEAGUE: French youngster Yves Soubeyran has signed a youth contract and will be looking to force his way into a solid defence as the Hearts' youths look to gain a fourth consecutive promotion. Last week's 2-1 victory over Manhattan Eclipse was the positive start that youth coach Wilem Gruberan was looking for. This week's game against Sirocco Whitecaps will provide a tougher test with both teams almost identical on paper.

ME: With Division 2 safety guaranteed, Hey Big takes the opportunity to rest Sanford Dole and Turnie Boch who, on four yellow cards each, risk earning suspensions going into the new season where vital caps should be picked up by both players. Added to the other notable absentees from the starting line-up, Piero Schiaparelli and Jaylo Freemunda, this makes for a considerably weakened Eclipse XI with the manager hopeful that the outcome will be a full selection to choose from for the opening fixture of next season. TEAM NEWS: In come debutants Falcon Greencloud, returning to the club who introduced him to the league, and Aaron Rainbow, whose signing raised a few eyebrows in midweek. The club have a large crop of talented strikers on the books but the current suspension and injury problems give Spencer Hart a chance to utilise all of them today, with Johnny Redcreek's minor calf strain keeping him on the bench. Zachary Fass fills the void left by Turnie Boch. YOUTH LEAGUE: Two new introductions this week in Tenneson Gough and Nixon Hardcastle, with DeSean Campbell also getting a fresh start at a new club at the expense of Jago Nancarrow, whose young legs are being rested this week.

EW: ~LAST WEEK~ Another defeat but some good performances from Faithful and Paciano and Rainbow ~TRANSFERS~ A surprise transfer this week with Rainbow joining Manhattan Eclipse, Burton wasn't expecting to sell him but the offer of Waara who Burton had wanted for a few weeks plus a skill 4 youth player was too good to turn down. ~THIS WEEK~ Sees the last game of the season, it has been a good season so far in terms of progress for the team and the result is not important. ~INTERNATIONALS~ With Mexico, Germany and South Africa all playing following today's match Burton has made room in his team for Mokena, Weissmeyer, Paciano, Baldivieso, Rodriguez and Manduray who should all get caps. ~AND FINALLY~ GO SHOOTERS GO
FC: Marooned in mid-table, The Cosmos have no chance of promotion going into the last game of the season. Manager Joseph BurrIDGE expressed his disappointment at the side's form as they finish their first season in the second division, but pointed out that staying up was the club's priority, and that it had been achieved. The fans are hopeful that Babu Pochox's brilliant form will carry over into next season, and that some new blood can push FC Cosmos to greater heights next time around.

Subs: Milano Laguerta 7, Tomás Karadagián 6, Cory Skilton 6, Vyacheslav Gubernski -. RR: Corder picks his strongest side for the ultimate game against AFC Kennington. This finally includes a debut for young Aussie attacker Wesley Zuul, who has been hammering on the door for some weeks now with some superb efforts in training. A win of any description will secure the Division 3 title, whilst a draw just might do it on goal difference. In any event, Corder knows that Nikki's Mavericks will do their best to get a result against Littleton, but, Corder still extends his best wishes to Littleton for the final showdown.
