

EINNEK NEWS

Hello and welcome to the week three turn. A busy week for me Einnek wise with plenty of good emails to keep me busy with ideas and suggestions (plus a couple of strange problems). Some of the ideas are related to information and presentation on the website which I will be looking at in the next few weeks.

Late Deals

While I am more than happy to check deals after my lunchtimecheck on a Thursday, it is not always possible for me to do so in time for both managers to be able to submit their sides for the games the next day. Please try to get all deals confirmed by both side by noon the day before a turn or it might be left until after the turn has been played.

Sammy Bull & Alessandro Ivanoff

Mr Bull has expressed his utter amazement that Welsh starlet Abbot Forster failed to find a club this week. A big talent in the European Youth League, Forster (no relation to George & Glynn!) averaged a goal a game at the recent Euro Cup tournament in Denmark. Maybe the talent scout in Einnek are not looking close enough to home??

Meanwhile, Mr Ivanoff called a press conference to outline why he thinks that the managers in Einnek have taken their eye off the ball big time. All his offerings this week failed to secure any interest at all despite being some of the best players he has made available recently. He will be looking to take a lengthy sabbatical if things do not improve.

Enjoy the holiday weekend,

We've seen his ability in training and hopefully the spotlight moving elsewhere will allow him to relax and sparkle on the pitch" stated David Jeffery in last night's press conference. Also noted was the return of the new Japanese International Captain Shin-Ichi Morikama, who's experience and leader ship should help the talented but young trio who have been playing. Bardolf Hiskins left the club after gaining his 4th cap for Wales in the B international, with Malik Carr, Gigi Roma and Edson Farias coming back which will give the squad a bit of needed extra depth

GH: ~TEAM NEWS~: Two changes to last week's losing side. Wynk returns at left back and Con Lafferty makes his first start of the season up front. ::THIS WEEK:: The Hearts take on Marky Mark's freshly relegated Black Star Olympic at the 'Hole-i-th'-wall' looking to claim a first win of the season. Wolters expects better from his side after seeing their long standing unbeaten run come to an end against Big Josie's bairns last week. Asked if his side would be over run by the Black Star strike force, manager Wolters said, "I wouldn't bank on it". Two former Hearts, Ulien Quadragesimo and Kazyhiro Kubota, will line up against their former employers... ::TRANSFER NEWS~: The club are pleased to have signed promising youngster Barton Stillwell from Exhall Wildcats in a deal that saw Andries De Witt depart Gorgie Road after a less than successful spell with the club. The management have received plenty of offers for South African pair Gornal Ship and Lumumba Vawda, however Wolters has now confirmed that neither player is available for the foreseeable future.

ME: Eclipse's new owners have backed the manager as promised - agent youth signings are trickling in as the manager snaps up players under the radar, while the Solarsphere slowly edges nearer the 50k capacity promised for midseason. On the pitch, Big Spennnda wasn't banking on a defeat so early in the season, but being capable of beating any team in the league, Yellowknife Industries are a special case and Hart was happy to walk away from the fixture with pride intact. Today he hopes Eclipse will bounce back and prove that they are contenders for a quick escape from Division 2. TEAM NEWS: The manager has been pleased to find slots for youth talent alongside the experienced heads in the senior team this season. After his Prospect of the Week award last week, Picasso Monroe is rewarded with a debut, despite the team reverting to 4-2-4 from the previous damage-limiting 5-2-3. The manager revealed he was looking for a young American defender for the future and after failing with several offers decided to look closer to home, plucking Monroe and Gilligan Cash from minor US leagues. The manager also admitted he was set to continue with the impressive Purdie Rascale in midfield until the late arrival of Abjay Boatang. The midfield has looked overrun even at this level and it is hoped the tough-tackling African will help break up the opposition (their play, not legs) and get the ball to the side's creative players. Up front, things look tasty with Freemunda coming good and Schiaparelli, Sju and Saintbernard likely to collect important caps in the coming weeks.
