

EINNEK NEWS

Hello and welcome to the week four turn. Another hectic week including a visit to Henry Kissinger to get advice on dealing with warring parties.

Morale Changes

The recently introduced changes to morale are looking to work well and I am already seeing some differences in the games being played. Hopefully you will all be seeing that morale is now very important and now just something you can easily keep at the upper levels.

Squad Sheets

Over the next 10 days or so, I will be making a couple of changes to the presentation of your squad sheets. One area I feel people need to be able to see very clearly is the number of times a player has been retired onto. A lot of people are falling foal of this one and the retiral of a skill 5 onto a skill 4 is becoming something you all must consider carefully. Personally I can not see much point in doing this kind of retiral, but if you do remember that your now skill 5 player has used on of his retiral slots for his career.

Have a good weekend,

Richard.

However this week sees reigning champions Warmington Bukigura come the the Arena for the biggest game so far. Manager Stu Henfrey has shuffled his pack again this week with Imanol Erlings moving from Ditton Shooters with Boris Gnaehrich moving in the opposite direction but the biggest deal of them all &amp; perhaps the biggest deal of the season so far saw Russian international captain Sergey Feofilakt join Hearts from Whitechapel. The deal saw Ambroise Vaugrénard, Mihovil Drazan &amp; Jackson Zebriki move in the opposite direction. The deal is a major coup for Stu Henfrey as Feofilakt was one of the most sought after players in the game. German B international midfielder Barla Rast also moved to Hearts in the deal &amp; they both go straight into this weeks starting line up. The arrival of Feofilakt has led to rumours that Spanish striker Pablo Cohete will be moving on soon &amp; Stu Henfrey did nothing to quash these rumours by stating that he sees Feofilakt &amp; Cesar as the perfect pairing up front &amp; if the right offer came in Cohete would be allowed to leave. The youth team continues to go from strength to strength with 3 wins from 3 also, making it 10 wins in a row. Youth players Mace Mendoza, Riaz Coriagga, Alridge Fey, Addison Royce &amp; Rafael Quesada continue to impress &amp; with the 1st team squad a little thin on the ground, chances are at least 1 will be promoted in the coming weeks. Rumours are that forum buddies Stu Henfrey &amp; Mark Corder are set to team up for an up &amp; coming TV commercial to promote 'Respect'. The commercial centres around the grass roots of football with 2 dads arguing over their boys opposing teams. Stu Henfrey is very excited at the prospect &amp; looking forward to working with Mr Corder :)

EW: ~LAST WEEK~ Wildcats battered IKB but somehow came out on the end of a 3-1, just did not take their chances!! ~TRANSFERS~ Two deals this week saw Mexican defender Rodriquez join the fold with Hardy and Nash leaving in exchange. Also Callender left the club with Bogota, Pacaino and Mituhide entering the Wildcats dressing room. ~THIS WEEK~ Sees the Wildcats travel to the Gaybears. No doubt this will be a backs to the walls game with a defeat likely, however Burton hopes to secure a prospect of the week and maybe grab a 3 goal haul for a point :-) ~INTERNATIONALS~ Quintana should pick up a cap this week ~YOUTH TEAM~ hahahahaha

RN: Manager Lear is currently trying to find the right combination up front after the shock retirement, just before last week's fixture, of inform striker Kasper Fasjovic who has returned to his native Sweden to be with his 2 sisters after both his parents were killed in a car accident. All at the club wish him well and send their condolences. First choice forward Pero is currently recovering from a twisted ankle and could be out for 2 or 3 weeks so Campbell and Eudoxio come back into the Rael frontline. The high performing midfield duo from last week continues unchanged but highly rated German ex-youth defender Keller Jost is preferred to Spanish stalwart Xovi. There was also a highly charged debate at the club this week with both keepers pushing their claims on the number 1 jersey to boost their international aspirations.

RR: Mark Corders sticks with goal-scoring debutant last Week, Espen Salander, in the fairly new 4-2-4 formation that delivered the goods seven days ago. Also having a good debut last week was Sammy Bull import Sacha Liberty. The two players making their mark in the team have impressed in training. Former youth prospect Johnny Redcreek is banging on the door to get into the first team, having scored 8 in a recent reserve game - Corder is keeping him at bay and promises him a place in the side very soon. Off the field, Manager Mark Corder and his close friend Stu Henfrey (Celtic Hearts) are working on a new initiative in sport and are currently promoting and pushing for more respect in football at grass roots levels. Their joint TV ad will hit the screens shortly and you'll see both managers having a fight while watching their kids line-up on opposite sides in a youth game. Einnek managers should enjoy watching the handbags, and seeing both Corder and Henfrey in a context not witnessed before.
