

EINNEK NEWS

Hello and welcome to the fifth turn of the season. With the EFA Cup starting in two weeks, the draw was made earlier today live on TV in glorious High Definition. You can find the full draw at the end of the turn.

Squad Sheets

The work on the changes to the squad pages has been a bit slow as real life takes over. I hope, however to have something ready for next week's turn. The additional information should be helpful to all of you.

Enjoy the football – hopefully it will not affect the turn times in the next month!!

With Josep Hustan not being sold, Sammy Bull has decided to withdraw the much anticipated Swedish striker Nymen Hagenskog from this week's sale. "Unless interest improves overall, I may take a long holiday" said a disgruntled Mr Bull in interview with the Einnek Sports Daily.

Sammy Bull's players have a better chance of stardom as they have already had some success in minor leagues. The value of these players is not displayed so you must consider your valuation before submitting a bid. You can bid as often as you like up to your current bank balance, however each unsuccessful bid will cost you a £50,000 administration fee.

Nazareen has been in a rich vein of form this season and seems to be attracting the attention of many of the top clubs! ~TRANSFERS~ A couple this week...a simple cash bid snared Gwther for 1.25mil and a larger deal involving former captain Rojo who has been off colour this season and young defender Evans. ME: Things are going to plan off the field if not on it as the Solarsphere edges towards its projected 50k capacity by Autumn, but with two defeats and two victories under their belts there is much room for improvement ... with their star man Dizo Rios suspended, Spencer Hart is hoping to get back on track against Etchingham Baybears today. * TEAM NEWS - Injury to Joao Leonandro gives both Picasso Monroe and Andrius Poskus starting berths today - otherwise the team is unchanged from last week. * TRANSFER NEWS - The success of the Kiah/Bosch partnership hasn't gone unnoticed, with the manager fielding enquiries for both players in the week. He is keen to keep the latter in particular, with Holland looking like tough cookies this season. The manager also had a deal ratified in the week - a new experience for him - but he hopes to return to the other club and see if anything can be tweaked to push the deal through. He also hopes another ongoing transfer saga can be resolved ... both deals are believed to centre around well-capped B midfielders. YOUTH TEAM: The agent players continue to trickle in with Jose Meira the latest addition, who has been pencilled in for a debut next week after months of rotting on the WLW bench. 'I can't understand it - the boy is clearly a top player in the making,' the manager quipped. Mr Hart also singled out Heron striker Johnny Céspedes for praise following the striker's blistering start to his Eclipse career. 'It's going to be hard to fit him into the first team, but if he keeps it up, I'll make room!'
