

EINNEK NEWS

Hello. Week 7 see the first turn without Youth League games being played. To clarify, the youth league will now always run with a week's gap between each tournament. There will be 3 tournaments per full Einnek league season.

Player Agents Update

Both Sammy Bull and Alessandro Ivanoff are satisfied that managers in the game value their efforts and will be re-appearing with some talent within the next 2 weeks.

Enjoy the weekend,

Richard.

DS: The board of Ditton Shooters have decided to give manager Robert Price until the end of the season to prove his worth. Although team morale is high the results are not coming in and after 3 seasons the only highlight has been relegation from division 1 and just missing relegation last season. In defence, Rob Price wishes to strengthen the squad but has had a lot of difficulty from certain managers in Einnek who are not prepared to deal at any cost or even respond to transfer request communications. Rob Price is heartened that the team are generally playing very well given their quality but does observe other teams across all divisions sometimes get the rub of the green more than others.

EW: ~LAST WEEK~ A friendly defeat - no surprise but some good performances in the game :) (might copy and paste this from now on! ~TRANSFERS~ Nothing major this week just a few cash sales in and out of the club. Bogota, Kittenfold and Ximenes are getting weekly bids but Burton has so far resisted selling these prized assets! ~THIS WEEK~ A home fixture against Rael Nerrad, hopefully a first win of the season however unlikely that may be!! ~INTERNATIONALS~ Kinderman should get his 30th cap with Fourgous, Eriq and Barsom playing some part in B internationals. ~AND FINALLY~ The unfortunate accident with the Vuvezela has been resolved. Burton then gave the vuvezela away to a local charity and had a rye smile on his face when he saw BSO bossman buying this back from the charity shop :)
