

EINNEK NEWS

Hello and welcome to the first turn of the new season. It is great to have three former managers back in the game while sad to see a couple of longer term managers leave. Hopefully they will miss the game and be back very soon.

Sherwin Douglas Agent Players

The first auction went very well. But to clarify a question I have been asked – all the players are considered youth players and will be entered into your youth sides when purchased.

Youth League Rule Change

Do not forget that after the final games of the current youth tournament next week, the new rule which will mean all players who join the game in the youth league will not be eligible for promotion to the senior ranks until they have been at in the game for a minimum 7 weeks (the equivalent of one tournament).

Have a great week,

Richard.

TEAM NEWS

BLACK STAR OLYMPIC: ~LAST WEEK~ a wild party took place, on the pitch!, as Gaffa Croasy celebrated the Mentals winning the Prem with good friend Burty, commiserations were sent to good friend Herdo and Henf ~TRANSFERS~ a busy close season as 3 top high skills were drafted in for old duffers ~THIS WEEK~ Simon Owens new team are the visitors ~TEAM SELECTION~ a few changes since last season as JCC, Faithful and Miura come in for Hookton, Juventino and Dash ~STAT BURST~ HSP BSO 24-24 S, AGG 32-32, MOR 15-15, FIT 109-107.... ~PREVIOUS MEETINGS~ These two Juggernauts of the game Salem 101 (aka Apostles aka Westie Warriors) were in the same division in the very first season!.... The BOTTOM division!.... Of cause the BSO Bossman won the division with a canter.... but Welto did finish a handy 7th!... in the away game it was 1-1 with Wouter Bos notching in the last minute for the equaliser.... Wk16 Black Star legend Jaimenacho Mendiguchia scored the only goal of the game in a 1-0 win... earlier this season thanks to Lord Dash Heart a 1-1 draw at West Leigh was another nail in the coffin and the phoenix was soon to rise again in the form of Axenbridge Apathetics.... 2-1 at the Hole last season Schiap man and Taiyo Pld4 W2 D2 L0 F5 A3.... ~INTERNATIONALS~ Daniel Burt bagged his 37th ip as he lifted the B World Cup Trophy with his Aussie buddies ~YOUTH LAST WEEK~ Whitecaps high flyers were held to a 1-1 at the Hole with Clerk Van Ten Tag bagging again ~YOUTH TRANSFERS~ new Krammer sensation Lat Chyne swaggers into the Youth League as old Krammer Thorbecke furthers his career after the expert tuition of the BSO Bossman turns another evian into merlot! ~YOUTH THIS WEEK~ Fardo's Warmington were due to be played but he might just switch teams before kick off! ~YOUTH TEAM SELECTION~ Chyne in Thorbecke out ~MANAGER QUOTE~ plan for this season is keep up with the leading pack and go for it if there is a chance at the latter end ~AND FINALLY~ The BSO Bossmans tip is good friend Gynn n Tonic, "anyone but Herdo" uttered the Enfield Supa Gaffa and after a weeklong transfer haggle a major deal might go down in the Olympic bar after today's game...

DITTON SHOOTERS: After a good middle table finish last season many pundits are writing off Ditton Shooters chances of success this coming season and are tipped as favourites to be relegated to the last division. Top pundit Bobster McKendrick cites Dittons young inexperienced defence as the major problem and transfers will be needed should any chance of survival be realistic. Stark contrast to Ditton Youth who are aiming for promotion and take on a new formation in the form of Marina Grovers. A win here will seem them close the gap and make promotion more of a certainty.

DRAXVILLE DWARVES: The final touches are rumoured to have been made to a deal which will see manager James Clinch part from Draxville, swapping the reigns with an unnamed Premier Division side. Dwarves Dwarf owners, Talumyn & Tabirah Emberwolf have concluded that agreements have so far been made which confirm that all current Dwarves players will move to the newly formed Premier Division club, whilst the existing ones from that team will make the return journey to Draxville. In a Channel Wormcaster interview, Dwarves TV's Premier Sports Channel, Clinch has stated that he is delighted at the prospect and cannot wait to see how his current squad will make the transition to a league three divisions higher than where they played last season.

GORGIE HEARTS: Young Mexican Cuauhtémoc Valenzuela is handed his first team début after picking up the Youth International Man of the Match award in the final week of last season. Wolters is hoping he can mirror his fine youth league record in the seniors and help the Hearts to a speedy return to the top flight. The rest of the side started the last outing, a 2-3 defeat away to rivals Gorgie Imps in last season's season finale at Tynebank Stadium... The Youths will be looking to pick up their form this week as they aim to score only their second victory of the current campaign. The Wee Hearts had to work hard to gain a point from a difficult game against Etchingham Thunder last time out. Dutch defender Boudewijn Slijngaard scored the Hearts' goal in what youth team coach Wilem Gruberan reckons is his best performance to date. As a result the club have received three offers for him in the close season - all of which have been rejected as the club feels he has a long term future at Gorgie Road... This week the Hearts take on newly promoted Manhattan Eclipse. 'Hey Big' has done a lot of work on his side during the pre-season and they will definitely provide stiff competition in the season's race to the Premier.

GORGIE IMPES: New signing Rooben Hoijcamp is handed his Imps debut in the season opener against Coruscant Star. He's the only new face in the starting XI from the side that ended last season with victory over relegated rivals Gorgie Hearts. Alexander Krychara netted a hat-trick on his debut and he'll be hoping to impress further as he keeps his place in the starting line up... Alejandro has been busy pre-season lining up deals which should all come off over the coming weeks. Extra effort will be spent on bringing in new faces who can help keep the Imps in the top flight in what is expected to be a tough campaign.

WEST LEIGH MERCENARIES: Fans of the club are still buzzing with the signing of top defender GTP. Other clubs have not quite brought out the best in him but manager Welton is convinced of his quality and was even close to making him team captain! He goes straight in side for the big opening game against local rivals Walmington and even though West Leigh are missing two top defenders a easy victory is expected.

Mrs Claps and the Jam Tart were handed the honour of managing the Division One Select this week. With six new teams in the division, they selected six players that have already been honoured with selection in the Premier and Division Two sides, and Röke Zorn and Rainer Schindzielorz that were selected for the Division One side in their last meeting against the Douglas Select, they have a fairly experienced side, despite the tender ages of some of their players. The last game saw the Division One select on the end of a 6-2 gubbing, so Jane and Rik were hoping for a slightly better result this time around.

Many Division One supporters were worried that the Jam Tart would have his players rolling about on the ground and putting in some spectacular dives, to try and get the Douglas players to sit out the game in the sinbin, but obviously Jane was having none of it and they played this as an exhibition match, as it is supposed to be played. The former tactic may have paid a better dividend, as the home side still went down 4-3, although the Douglas Boys didn't have it all their own way.

Many thought that with the heart ripped out of the Douglas side with Digby Sherlock, Dol Baxa, Ramos Zaratiga and the man that ran the whole show, Nando Garcia Luna, all signing Einnek contracts this week, but such is the quality of the squad, that they would struggle today, but these youngsters are class and the replacements simply slotted into their new roles as if they had been there all along.

Douglas took no chances in the first half though, with all starters having played for the side previously. The second half saw Ram Palo, Teagan Wolfe and Gabri Kappelroth making their first appearance and all impressing when they got their chance to wear the all-black kit. I was invited to the squad try-outs earlier in the week, and I was particularly impressed with four or five of the new faces, although none of them have been named today, other than German keeper, Kappelroth. There is a tall black Russian teenager, that was recommended by Nito Cruso, by the name of Garin Bok, who impressed us all at the trials and whom Douglas has been watching since he was 12, so I would expect him to join the squad and a Croatian defender and a Columbian midfielder, whose names escape me at the moment, that really impressed. I wouldn't be surprised if they find that they have been offered a place in the squad.

Anyway, on to today's game.

Shig Koga was forced to make a remarkable point blank reaction save in the first minute of the game as Wilfie Braddock volleyed a Bello Xica cross on target from ten yards, but Big Shig's remarkable reaction saw him fist the ball over the bar. It wasn't so much a save and a left hook! Braddock was remarkable today, throughout the whole 90 minutes. The home side continued to throw caution to the wind in the opening ten minutes, throwing everything into landing the opening goal, but it proved to be their downfall, as in the 12th minute, Big Shig teased the ball off Henri Le Brocq's head, when the brave Le Brocq attempted to out-jump the Japanese man mountain, and then threw the ball a full 60 yards to set Cilio Zabbo through to beat the offside trap and lob a stranded Mariano Quiroga in the home side's goal to make it 1-0 for the touring side.

Zabbo netted a second with a diving header from a Cadan Tummelty cross. Tummelty has modelled himself on Bax Tulloch-Pandy, both in looks and playing style and his surges from deep in the defence is a joy to watch. He hasn't been able to mirror Tulloch-Pandy in everything, however, as BTP tackles simply wouldn't be acceptable in the namby-pamby game that we witness these days – the refs would have him off the field for one of the kind of tackles that BTP put in throughout the game! The bushy beard is impressive for such a young boy, but I'd lose the ginger mullet, Cade, it's somewhat outdated!

There was no further scoring in the first half, although Le Brocq and Arnold Sparrow both came close to scoring in the last minute of the first half. Sparrow was surprisingly rested for the second half and his replacement, Teagan Wolfe, proved to be an elegant player, with speed and deft touches and most certainly one to watch. Le Brocq finally hit the net in the 49th minute, with a tap-in after a goalmouth scramble. Bello Xica headed home a Braddock corner in the 51st minute to make it two goals apiece. In the 63rd minute, Wolfe strolled through the home side's defence, before tapping home from close range to make it 3-2, but the home side equalised five minutes later, when Braddock netted a direct free kick from the edge of the area, after Tummelty ankle tapped Jakov Reljic on his way to goal. I was surprised he wasn't binned for the offence, but the ref was particularly lenient today, allowing the game to flow as much as possible.

The winning goal came in the 80th minute, when Tarp Vandahl played a clever one-two with Zabbo, to beat offside and side-foot past Rainer Schindzielorz, or Ray Schits as the fans call him.

4-3 to the young Douglas hopefuls was a fair result, but the home Mrs Claps and the Jam Tart can feel pleased with themselves that their side gave them one hell of a game!
