

EINNEK NEWS

Hello and welcome to today's turn a special day all over the World. All sides in Einnek Football held a 2 minute silence before today's games.

Important News - Next Week

The company that manages the webserver on which Einnek Football is hosted are making some major infrastructure upgrades this week. This will result in an extended period of downtime for both the main site and the forum. The work is due to start after 10pm on Wednesday 16th November and will last for around 4-5 hours, with the sites back live by 6am the following morning at the latest. Please bear this in mind when running your team this week.

Season Nine

With just 3 more league turns before the end of the season, I ask that you all start to consider if you plan to carry on in the game next season. I would like to try and avoid the delays and chasing of this time last year.

Have a great weekend,

Richard.

Lots of new faces at Tynebank Stadium this week with a lot more expected before the end of the season. The starting XI sees three changes from the side that were defeated by Winchmore Radiation last week. Joao Leonardo, Miki Roosterburg and Robinson Figueroa all make their Imps debuts as Alejandro switches to a 433 formation.

BSO: ~THE BEAT THE DROP BOYS~ With homes games against The Mentals and Yellowknife to come and away games against Winchmore this week, Gaffa Croasy has pinpointed the week 21 fixture vs Nighthawks as the must win game..... Clappy will hope to have two wins under his belt by then with the experts perming one from three of Hawks, Fulham and BSO as the remaining team to join Imps and Venom in the drop zone.... "My good friend Clappy is talking up this game as a possible 3 points for him but I'm sure a suspension or injury in his next two games could increase the slender high skill point lead Black Star already have and gift the points to us" mused the BSO Bossman Mark E Mark..... ~PREVIOUS MEETINGS~ An amazing 8 draws in 11 previous encounters against todays opponents.... P11 W1 D8 L2 F17 A18 ~YOUTH~ 100% record just one goal against Olympic up into today's game hoping to claim top spot.... The Mentals should provide no opposition at all so its who gets the most bonus points as rivals Kennington are away to Yellowknife... ~AND FINALLY~ Gaffa Croasy today marvelled at the rather large tolly he dumped in his toilet at 7.06 am and immediately sent good friend Alan Joseph a mobile phone picture of his fine catch of the day....

MS: 3 wins on the bounce, 2 away of which were away including last weeks at the mighty BSO, see Satans travel to relegation threatened Fulhampton full of confidence. 1 change is made with Dutch defender Hoijcamp starting in place of Colombian attacker Eudoxio as he looks to try & impress the Dutch selectors. Diego Meléndez had his dream of rejoining Satans shattered 3 times this week by Einnek red tape!! "Rik approached me & told me what he wanted for him & 3 times I increased it but alas it wasn't enough & I respect my peers decision but it's a shame for the lad cos he had his heart set on joining us." Stu Henfrey stated. It's not clear if a fresh deal can be negotiated, "We'd like him to join us but we are not desperate, so we'll have to see." He stated. Subs: Jose Olazias 6, Stride Treglown 7, Xhosa Bulani 6, Malik Carr -. WB: This is the third time that Warmington have played Yellowknife this season, and the second time this week. The first meeting in the league was a fairly cagey, tight affair and the second could only be described as a total bloodbath, both in terms of style and result. Yellowknife infuriated their fans earlier this week, by selecting to throw the cup semi-final against us earlier this week. Instead they choose to field a rather inexperienced and talentless, yet rather brutal side in the cup. Doing this in order to try and put as many Warmington players on the treatment table possible and out of today's league fixture. Some are describing this move as genius, others a last ditch throw of the dice by a desperate man. Who is right? Well time will tell, but the result today will go a long way to help us find out. Anything other than a win by Yellowknife will leave the plan looking rather flawed. Warmington's manager Richard Gynn is confident that Warmington's team spirit and wish to get a result for their fellow bruised and fallen colleagues will be enough to pull them through to gain at least a draw. He also observed that, after enduring the game earlier this week, it's not going to take very much now for Yellowknife to completely lose their fans in this game, so we will be looking to make the most of any inroads we can make.

The Hearts boss was left fuming with his team after the lacklustre showing against Alan Joseph's side. He believes that the defeat could have cost the Hearts any chance of promotion this season. The Wee Hearts trialists this week entered and bowed out of the Einnek CTC. Promising Dutch striker Jeroen Heuckeroet took the player of the round gong with his hat-trick in the defeat to Warrington Bukigura. He'll soon be joining the Hearts youth set up as soon as a contract has been formalised.

Subs: Vincente Casillas 6, Arie Cato 6, Lewys Beaumaris 7, Rui Machado -. ME: Crunch time! If Eclipse had any believe that they could avoid the drop then surely Mr Hart should have been concentrating his efforts this week on bringing in short-term deals that strengthened the first team rather than seven low key stocking fillers who represent nothing other than tax write-offs. Eclipse are poorly represented in the international QFs today with Andrick Shkadov, Niko Zelic, Igor Spychesnikov and the impressive Isaac la Batte on the cusps of making the benches for their respective teams but all likely to miss out. YOUTHS: The youth cogs have begun whirring after the team's false start. Hey Big feels his frontline is as good as any in the league but is known to be casting more than a concerned eye over an ageing midfield and inconsistent defence. New introduction Symmons Creed is given an immediate chance to impress after Mr Hart opted (perhaps prematurely, given the rate at which the more Triassic Dutch defenders are leaving the game) to allow Cruso whipper-snapper Kersten Berghgraev to move on.

DS: Albeit a little early promotions have been awarded for youth starlets Liam Burrell and Condor Sands, the later will make his debut for Ditton Shooters against Wessex. Both players have played outstanding well for the youth side and well deserve their promotion to the senior side and have signed a 2 season contract. There will be further promotions nearer the end of the season.

Full Time					2-2

Lovable Larry and Stephanie Farnden put out an experience defence and four of the brightest youth thins in the game up front and it paid off with a well-deserved draw against an impressive looking Douglas' side today. On any other day, against any other team, the way the All Blacks played today would have seen them waltz off with an easy victory, but the Division Three boys fought for every ball and their determination paid off.

It was a clean game, despite both home goals coming from Thorsten Molzl free-kicks, but that wasn't the reason that Molzl earned his man of the match. He was magnificent in the heart of the home side's defence, marshalling them brilliantly and pulling off some of the best timed last minute tackles I've seen in one game – oh yes, not to mention clearing the ball off the line twice in the second half!

A great game and as it has come to the last game of the series, it will be the last time that we see Kie Dylan Maelmadog, Mintxo Zubiondo, Sampson Gulpidge and Giles Swidger, as they will be made available after today's game. Gulpidge and Swidger have had scouts fawning over them since they came into the game, so I would expect them both to go for big money, but I believe that Zubiondo has a massive future and somebody may just pick him up at a bargain price!
