

EINNEK NEWS

Hello and welcome to week 2.

Youth Player Promotions & Recent Form

Over the last few weeks there were a number of occasions where some players who were promoted from the youth league have kept their form dots and others have not. This was due to coding issues in the site code and I needed to review the various pieces of code to make sure they were all doing the same thing every time a player was promoted. After some discussions with a couple of managers the promotion of players who then lose all their form was seen as a big issue and I tend to agree. So with immediate effect all promoted youth players will be able to carry a maximum of 4 form dots into the senior ranks. The actual figure will be subject to an adjustment just like the form reset after an international. I trust this is a welcome alteration?

International Captains

The various international selection committees have been asked to nominate their selections for international captains this week and they will be published next turn.

Have a great week,

Richard.

TEAM NEWS

BLACK STAR OLYMPIC: ~LAST WEEK~ an uninspiring 1-1 draw with Prem debut boy Mr Owens Salem 2011 as they snatched an 80th minute equaliser meant an instant dip into the transfer market as a 5 player cull hit the senior squad... disappointing displays from Columbian defenders Bogota and Chevon meant they were first out the door.... ~TRANSFERS~ Sk9 at just 25yrs English Striker sensation Jacob Wolfstone joins from Gaffa Croasys Prem tip Bukigura.... senior and youth players + cash make their way to Enfield Coach Gynn....not satisfied with that capture the BSO Bossman got long time target Ze Ze Top Montebezerra to sign on the dotted line..... "Gaffa Croasy commented "I expect the full Monty off that lad!!" joked the charismatic Gaffa.... another awesome signing in Dawson Zelquinda (48th in list of all time defenders) also joins from the Thunder of Stoneleigh near Etchingham Baybears.... don't feel too sorry for John Weston though... he grabs Mario "Super" McGuire out the deal!... ~THIS WEEK~ Big Al's joint Prem toppers Coruscant Star are the hosts as look to improve their disappointing record against the Jock outfit of MurphoMatic..... IN Zelquinda, Ojika, Wolfstone and Ze Montebezerra... ~STAT BURST~ HSP CS 26-24 BSO, AGG 32-32, MOR 19-16, FIT 108-107.... ~PREVIOUS MEETINGS~ The league careers of both clubs Coruscant D2 D2 D2 D1 Pr Pr Pr vs Olympics D3 Pr Pr Pr Pr D1 Pr Pr means it was the first meeting in week 2 of season 5 as Big Al ran out 2-1 winners in Cruso's Kasper Fasjoviks, the Olympic Cup Final winning goal scorer, last game for Olympic and it was a 3 all draw at the Hole with Kazyhiro Kubota, Tom Hookton & Ulien Quadragesimo all notching in the return fixture... Last season (7) Olympic triumphed 2-1 with an 83rd minute winner to send them 2nd in week 7 and the reverse fixture saw a 2-1 win for Coruscant at the Celestial Dome (The first thing I observed after parking the Focus was the magnificent white main building. A glorious structure. A renovated art deco hotel was the centrepiece of this elegant playground. But there was no playing here. To the average Joe this looked like a country retreat they could never afford. Hedgerows symmetrically began at each side of the building and swept away horizontally like a wall around a castle. I climbed the steps and before entering, decided to have a quick look around. I walked to the side of the building. Inside the windows I could see gym equipment, saunas and a swimming pool. A country retreat right enough? Now I stood at the side of this architectural beauty and had a vista that was unavailable at ground level. And what a sight! 4 full size grass pitches, 2 full size artificial pitches, a 7 aside pitch, a five aside pitch. I walked along a path towards the training area. I saw an assault course which tired me out looking at it. I hadn't noticed at first but there was a golf course where the pitches ended. A running track surrounded one of the grass pitches. I watched as 4 players were sprinting 100 metres) but with Ulien Quadragesimo grabbing the MotM award.... Kram League didn't want to unrepresented either so in came Colombian Luz Jairo under much media acclaim and Toma Hrvaje more discreetly from Croatia.... Tweel comes into midfield after signing from Simons Salem in a cash plus player for Thulin ~YOUTH THIS WEEK~ shithouse team Exhall Wildcats are the visitors as Olympic look good to nail credible 4th place in this season Youth League IX ~YOUTH TEAM SELECTION~ OUT Thulin, CVTT, Cobos and Donal... IN Jairo, Hrvaje, Tweel and Jaclara ~MANAGER QUOTE~ With older stars being recruited out the Hole onto pastures new and 5 fresh younger senior stars being brought in a quiet revolution is being overseen by the handsome BSO Bossman "We want to rejuvenate and rejoice the side in the short term but still have a cutting edge for a trophy challenge comes season end " revealed the wily Gaffa.... ~AND FINALLY~ Donal Nefalbreed sits this one youth fixture out under much transfer speculation after being touted in the press as being on the "Market" signalling his 2 cap spell at the Hole maybe coming to an end... apparently a decent cash bid may acquire his services....

DITTON SHOOTERS: A stronger Whitecaps side but Ditton to the sword and were lucky not to lose by more. Good performance from Tenkic and former Bully Semyon continues to impress. Lawbreakers visit the Crabtree for the first time and a must win if Ditton are to survive. Ditton youth fought a hard fought 1-0 win to consolidate second place with a final season match against league leaders Redroc who have consistently performed all season. A draw or win should see them promoted. And for the first time this season....GO SHOOTERS GO.

ELLAND MENATAYS: It would seem that there is a new Youth protégé who makes his debut this week. Some might think that this is one week to soon, but the comments coming from the youth set up are, "if they are good enough, they are old enough". Transfer news is that Neff looks like he may be on the move to further his international prospects, but whether it is before or after this turn remains to be seen.

ETCHINGHAM THUNDER: John Weston had to call in teams of local police to prevent the angry fans outside Etchingham Thunders's training ground from pushing down the fence to confront the training staff. Fans were angry that Weston had gone back on his pledge not to sell Zé Montebezerra who left the club for Black Star Olympic this week. Ze as he is affectionately known was gutted to be leaving Etchingham after scoring 81 goals from 94 games at the club and being the clubs top scorer and player of the year for the last three years. Ze explained on Channel Z192 that "it was a difficult decision for me. I love Etchingham, they have made me what I am but the gaffer called me in on Monday, explained the offer on the table and I have signed for Black Star for the great of the club." He went on to reveal that he hoped that he could come back one day but felt it was unlikely. Meanwhile the fans should take heart that a true legend of Einnek has joined the club. Mario McGuire is in the top two scorers of all time in Einnek and he hopes to resurrect his goal scoring form that he hasn't seen for some time. When interviewed Mario said "I am fecking happy to be signing for Etchingham. I have not been happy at my last two clubs and really need to focus on getting Etchingham out of their current division that they have been stuck in for three seasons." Mario was handed the 99 shirt at a press conference. Meanwhile, uproar in Etchingham this week as Missus Moggins Pie Shop started selling sausage rolls. One resident shouted abuse towards the Pie Shop: "Moggins, you bleeping bleep, go bleep yourself and take your bleeping sausage rolls with you you trampy bleep." Missus Moggins, 78 from Hailsham was not available for comment but he solicitor read out a prepared statement "Missus Moggins is bleeping sorry for any bleeping anguish she has caused by selling bleeping sausage roll. She is shocked by the reaction and would like to be left alone to recover from what has been a very distressing time." The statement concludes by saying "Missus Fegarty, go bleep yourself and perhaps you can shove my sausage rolls up your bleep". It's all go in Etchingham!

FC COSMOS: Victory at home last week was a great way to start the Cosmos' attempt to bounce back after relegation. The celebrations were muted somewhat as a result of the injury to Captain Babu Pochox. Nevertheless, Joseph Burrigide was bullish at his most recent press conference: 'Sure we will Babu, but we have some really good squad players who will get a chance to shine in his absence. Both Blas and Dubravko have already started to show their ability to shine at this level, which shows that having a good youth side can pay off'. Despite being unbeaten in the league this season, that youth side goes into its final game with relegation a possibility...

GORGIE HEARTS: Kanu Lake is handed his Hearts début as Wolters men go all-out attack against newly promoted AC Legacy. Soloza Prettleg moves on to Redroc Rovers with highly rated German defender Dionysus Eberstark coming the other way in a deal the Hearts' board hopes will strengthen the side in their promotion charge. Out of form striker Saul Bullock-Sloan has been speaking to the media this week. He admitted to suffering from the pressure of being the new kid on the block as he struggled for goals last season. He believed there was too much expectation for him to perform after he bagged the player of the week award back in week 17 of season 6 with a five-goal haul against Solent Stars. He hopes that now the pressure is off that he'll be able to recapture the form that earned him three Scotland caps within his first seven weeks in the game. This week has also seen the introduction of three youngsters who will all be vying for a place in the Hearts' youth side. A lot is expected of Englishman Adam Willard who has been offered a youth contract after three successful years at the Wee Hearts Academy. He's joined by fellow striker Ugolin Auteuil and Italian defender Mario Tognazzi. All three are expected to start this week's youth fixture against Somerset Devils.

GORGIE IMPS: Transfer activity at Tynebank Stadium this week saw the signing of German defender Finn Rosenzweig and Swedish 'keeper Ajax Foulkes. Both joined Alejandro Cesar Silva's men in a deal that saw Welsh No. 1 Arwyn Kilderrith, Italian midfielder Zanipolo Salvi and American defender Johnny Bonneville all move to Stu Henfrey's Mancunian Satans. In an interview with Imps.tv, Rosenzweig revealed he was delighted to move to a team who seem to be making excellent progression and look forward to taking his big chance now it had arrived. He also revealed the opportunity to play alongside players of the calibre of Aztec Escondido and Quantizão had a huge influence in his decision to leave rainy Manchester behind. One player not leaving, despite the Gorgie Times claiming so on Thursday, is midfielder ace Per Jolomberg. He had been set to join a first division club but the deal broke down at the eleventh hour after the other manager pulled out of the deal completely. As a result last week's player of the week will once again take his place in the Imps' midfield.

MANCUNIAN SATANS: "Its a conspiracy" was manager Stu Henfrey's reaction to the opening day home defeat at the hands of newly promoted but odds on title favourites Yellowknife Industries. "It seems the world & his dog are doing everything within their power to give Rob all he needs to create the ultimate team & even the referees seem to be going out of their way to make sure they get the results they need". He stated following Nikolai Latichev's decision to let Paul Adams 89th minute winner stand, despite replays clearly showing he used his hand to guide the ball into the net instead of his head. "Everyone in the ground could see it was a blatant handball, well everyone except the person that mattered!". "Look at the stats, we had nearly as much possession, more shots on & off target, better pass accuracy, less fouls committed & yet we lost!?! They even had to put the top performance of the week in to hold us to a draw, only for the ref to hand them the win on a plate". His comments are unlikely to go down well the the EFA & he faces the possibility of a hefty fine or touchline ban. This week's Satans travel to Einnek old but newcomer Simon Owens 101. Kilderrith, Sasperalli, Paskonin(again!), Bonneville, Salvi, Ospina(again!), Templeton, Paz & Godwine all join the senior playing staff this week but the signing that most excited Stu Henfrey was GTP! "I finally have the chance to kill the leg end" was his response. Satans youth side face a crunch last game against top of table Athletico Brisbane, knowing only a 4 point win will see them promoted for 3rd season running. The current youth side is looking very healthy with every player bar new signing Guzman & Ivanoff Zopblanja coming from the Satans Academy. Predictions: Senior - 101 1-1 Satans : Youth - Satans 3-2 Brisbane.

MANHATTAN ECLIPSE: GENERAL WAFFLE: Last week's Division 1 baptism didn't turn into the drubbing Hey Big was fearing with Eclipse matching Rik's Hearts quite nicely to earn a well-earned draw. This week welcomes Darwin Disciples, Spenna's title favourites, to the Solarsphere with the manager predictably suggesting that 'anything will be a bonus from this one!' ... TEAM NEWS: B internationals, as with many sides in the upcoming weeks, dictate Eclipse's line-up today. Heron defenders Simon Tipple, who impressed on his senior debut last week, and long-term target Ito Yamamoto both stand reasonable chances of representing their nations today, while up front Jersey Gladness will need to play a blinder in order to do so after a muted outing last week. YOOVES: Another decent result last week over Rik's Hearts - this time a victory on the youth front. As we go into the final fixture of another season there is no chance of promotion, but fortunately only a slight one of relegation, so after tearing the heart out of the side at the start of the current campaign it can only be taken as a decent season. With Douglas signing Nando Garcia Luna in the mix, Hey Big is hoping to slowly rebuild the reputation of the Eclipse youth squad back to where it was several seasons ago when the club were on the brink of promotion to the top flight.

RAEL NERRAD: Vsn Eych Verhavert is the only change to last week's team after getting rave reviews in the youth league and will take his place in the centre of midfield. Manager Lear is hoping that the players brought in are of good enough calibre to fire the team to promotion after the disappointment of last year's relegation.

WEST LEIGH MERCENARIES: Merc's fans were ecstatic with the news of the signing of long time targets 'The Khud', Dazet, Guiraldes and attacking superstar Kade Petitperrin who should form a potent attack with Vojko Ka. Merc's now boast the all-time top attacker in the game in Ka and the top 2 midfielders in Guiraldes and D'zito! In other news the retirement this week of Usaka Tehiro now means that Japanese hard man Saburi Watamura is now the tallest player in the Japanese squad standing at an imposing 5 foot 7 inches

The Division Two Management Team of James "Snow White" Clinch and Andrew "Beverley" Peverley, picked a strong side to take on the Douglas side today. They had a lot to live up to as the Division Two select have come closest to beating the Douglas Select, with a 1-1 draw in their last meeting and they came within a minute of doing so today, as well. Snow White and Bev chose to pack their defence and hit on the break, with Diondre Morice and Thomane Chevalier, playing more as wing-backs, rather than wingers and Bøe Hägg sitting just in front of the defence, blocking the runs of Mintxo Zubiondo and Cali Krojas, both who like to run through the middle of a defence.

They opened the scoring in the 5th minute, when a long clearance from the brilliant Lar Jaganov, making his second appearance in a select jersey, but his first appearance representing Division Two, clearing quickly after he broke down an attack with a well-timed tackle on Garin Bok. Redroc's Wesley Zuul controlled it brilliantly, turned and volleyed the ball home from the edge of the area. Gabri Kappelroth had no chance, although he did look nervous a few times in today's game.

The Douglas team upped the pace and kept the home side pinned back for the next ten minutes until drawing level, when the tall black, elegant Russian, Garin Bok headed home a Cali Krojas cross at the back post. Bøe Hägg put the home side back into the lead in the 26th minute, with a well worked free kick, where Diondre Morice appeared to trip over the ball and in that split-second Hägg had slotted the ball past an unsuspecting Kappelroth in the All-Blacks goal.

Beverley and Snow White's tactics worked well, although the visitors did have more than their fair share of attacks in the second half, snatching a draw in the dying seconds, when Big Shig, who was immense in the second half, made one of his, now legendary long throws to set young Teagan Wolfe on his way, to beating two men, before side-footing the ball through Goll De Guendez' legs to make it 2-2.

The man of the match was a close run thing between Bøe Hägg and Ram Palo and had Hägg not had to be substituted in the 70th minute, after a late Zagan Vivier tackle, it may have gone the other way, but Palo played well throughout the game, but was immense in the last 20 minutes of the game.

The Douglas new-boys fared well, having lost so many influential players in the last two weeks, forcing them to play a third captain in three weeks, but Nazario Robles was up to the task. The Black Russian and Wee Wolfie, as the fans have dubbed Bok and Wolfe, look to be real find sup front and Krojas had an international class performance in midfield. I'm not so sure about Kappelroth, but to be fair to him, anyone would look pedestrian when compared to Big Shig Koga.
