

EINNEK NEWS

Hello and welcome to the first cup turn of the season.

Last Weekend's Meet-Up

It was good to see those of you who made it to the little gathering last Saturday. A lot of transfer dealing was discussed along with much chatter about the forthcoming Einnek Two. Also discussed was a proposal to make some alterations to the Youth League. The changes were (with one small exception) met with broad approval and I will be outlining this more in the forthcoming week so you all have a chance to input into the proposed change.

Einnek Two

More news next week, with details of start dates and payment details.

Have a great weekend,

Richard.

Subs: Kedgeree Trollope 6, Andrei Tenkic 7, Dixie McQueen 6, Malik Carr -.   TEAM NEWS OF THE WEEK  NW: Wombats' new manager, JBE, has been looking forward to his first game in charge all week long! – "It's an opportunity to see what my players can do. Playing in a cup game is a wonderful chance to show me how good they are". Since taking over last weekend, JBE has introduced six players to his squad, retired 13 players (including the controversial retirement of Stephao), increased the academy size to large and has cut down the wage bill significantly. "I wanted to put down a marker from the very start. When I told Stephao that he was no longer needed, he kicked up one hell of a fuss. Luckily, William Edeson was there to defuse the situation. Stephao then packed his belongings and was last seen speeding away in his Lamborghini".            GI: Alejandro picks a strong team to take on Northern Wombats in the EFA Cup this week. Quantizão returns to the starting XI after being named on the bench last week. The Wee Imps picked up a handy point against the Talaban last week thanks to a first goal for Benn Johnston. The big Jamaican is hoping to add to that goal against Southern Cross Prophets this week.

Subs: Spatacus Flowerdew 6, Tohias Chavarria 6, Gabriel San Broitas 6, Luca Ziniginela -. CL: After a hectic start to the season the Lawbreakers have a relaxing non-competitive week off with an away day friendly trip to Fulhampton FC. Ady Blyth is under no illusion that Fulhampton have a much stronger squad but is still expected to keep all but one of his key players in the starting line-up. The missing player is Midfielder Gianpolo Lanna who finds himself side-lined with a knee injury - his replacement comes in the form of Mexican midfielder Enriqueta Toradio. Toradio was once considered to be a rising star of the Einnek world - exploding into the ELA Elementals youth set up in season 1 with an average of 7.33 and 2 goals. After a further 5 seasons at Oakland Park Angels he finally made the move to Calico making 26 full youth appearances and several as a sub. With 3 ip's to his name he will now - at the age of 24 years - make his senior debut. The real action this week comes from the Youth league as the battle to stay up for the Calico youth leaguers seems all but lost. The shining lights from last week's 2-2 draw are undoubtedly the focus once again as Roberto Biloxi and Freddy Grier aim to once again run the show as Grier makes a late run for an appearance for the Irish national side in the coming weeks turns.

Koenraad starts again upfront, but Wayne is pushing him for the first team spot so will need to impress. ----- Both Joord Bastiaan and Larrs Skovengberg have been offered coaching roles with the club now that both are starting to consider retirement.

After taking a short lay down to compose himself at the giddy prospect of already being in the hat for the second round, the manager shuffles his pack today to accommodate his fringe players. With the exception of the mercurial Kaja Sinis - set to lead Japan in his penultimate international - the line-up is an eclectic mash-up of waifs, strays and misfiring agent youngsters Mr Hart has amassed. The most interesting dual will be between the midfield trio of Moerkerken, van de Stelt and Hoskyns, with the most impressive likely to line-up alongside Quennel Mege next week. TRANSFER NEWS: As soon as Everton Babatunde's availability became known last week, Big Spenda was pestering James Clinch, desperately trying to avoid having to part with Wilfred Braddock for the Cameroonian defender. A mini backlash from fans ensued as the lively Australian, believed to be the future of the Eclipse midfield, was sent packing after only one senior start, but the manager hopes the home faithful will get a good taste of Babatunde's qualities this afternoon. YOUTHS: After becoming something of a laughing stock the manager vowed to turn around the youth team's fortunes this season and he's been true to his word with the club requiring one point from the two remaining fixtures to gain promotion. Mr Hart doesn't let up with his team selection, although AC Legacy present a challenge in themselves. On a side note we get a look at Einnek's latest international teams in the coming weeks, with Bartolomeu Ruah hoping to feature for Portugal.

MickE and Beverly Peverley had a similar issue to last week's management team, as most of the top qualifiers play for Chesterman United, Manhattan Eclipse, Elland Menatays, Ditton Shooters and Corton Wanderers, in the second division, yet they still managed to put a side together that entertained us, without ever looking like winning the game.

Things changed in the second half, with the strike team of Trace McGurk and Tulloch McGraw, who are something of a dream-team up front, but even the two of them combined couldn't claw the game back from being down 3-0 at half-time.

As for the Douglas team, they all continue to impress, in particular both goalkeepers, Guarido Axi, (who has yet to get a full game), and this week's man of the match, Natanho Zara, who has been invited to train with the Portuguese squad this week, to give him a taste of the big time, as seen as their major hope for the future.
